Nixon Demands More Power or Abolition of Job

Calls It "Needless Burden" and Asks Full Authority Over Traction for Himself or the Board of Estimate

City May Run Car Line

Whalen Asks Permission to Operate Williamsburg Bridge Local June 1 Next

At an uproamious mass meeting held resterday by the Real Estate Auc-Association at 14 Vesey Street Public Service Commissioner Nixon asked that he be given increased power to act in the traction situation or that his office be abolished "as a need ess burden." The meeting was ed ess burden." The meeting was nost broken up by hecklers, one of hom was shouted down by the audi-nee after he had mounted the pat-ence after be had mounted the platform to make a spech.

The city authorities yesterday took the first steps toward operation of a unface car line since the transit probem become acute. Grover A. Whalen, Commissioner of Plant and Structures, recommended to the Board of Estimate that the municipality take over the Williamsburg Bridge local trolley line, the permit for which expires May 31, 1920. The Committee on Franchises will consider the mutter.

Cammissioner Nixon at the mass meeting had just told his audience that the city could not on rate of without a loss when a man in the last row, said to be a Hylan office-holder, jumped to his feet.

This new body will undertake to provide work for the comparatively few onetime service ment still unemplyed. It will take charge of the readquarters at 500 Pearl Street on Mordly. Laurence MeGu re former president of t e Real Estate Board indorsed Mr. Nixon's stand for a flexible fare and urged that Governor Smith, instead of waiting for legi lative action, take matters into his own hands by appointing a commission to inv stirate and handle the whole traction situation. A field L. Smith, executive secretary of the re-employment committee, will remain in the same capacity with the new organization.

"The new committee," Mr. Smith said, "will continue the vocational department. During the coming weeks there will be a considerable labor turniver, and the arrivers of the new bureau can be utilized largely by both employers and applicants for work. The employers will be a considerable for work.
